DECISION ON ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS[1]

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

      On August 7, 2015, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,[2] (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleged that as a result of receiving an influenza ("flu") vaccine on November 24, 2014, she suffered tendonitis and disorders of bursae and tendons in her left shoulder. On May 11, 2016, the undersigned issued a decision awarding compensation to petitioner, based on the respondent's proffer, for a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration ("SIRVA"). (ECF No. 26).

      On May 25, 2016, petitioner filed a motion for attorneys' fees and costs. (ECF No. 31). Petitioner requested attorneys' fees in the amount of $13,922.00 and attorneys' costs in the amount of $739.32 for a total amount of $14,661.32. Id. at 2. In accordance with General Order #9, petitioner's counsel represented that petitioner incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. Id.

[1] Because this unpublished decision contains a reasoned explanation for the action in this case, the undersigned intends to post it on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002. 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services). In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to redact medical or other information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. If, upon review, the undersigned agrees that the identified material fits within this definition, the undersigned will redact such material from public access.

[2] National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

On June 8, 2016, petitioner filed an amended application for attorneys' fees and costs. (ECF. No. 33). Petitioner reduced the amount requested to $14,000.00, stating that respondent had advised that she would not object to such amount in this case. Id.

On that same date, respondent filed a response confirming that she does not object to the amended request, as it is not an unreasonable amount to have been incurred for proceedings in this case to date." (ECF No. 34). She added, however, that the "lack of objection to the amount sought in this case should not be construed as admission, concession, or waiver as to the hourly rates requested, the number of hours billed, or the other litigation related costs." Id.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. § 15(e). Based on the reasonableness of petitioner's request and the lack of opposition from respondent, the undersigned GRANTS petitioner's motion for attorneys' fees and costs.

Accordingly, the undersigned awards the total of $14,000.00[3] as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to petitioner and petitioner's counsel Paul R. Brazil.

The clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.[4]

IT IS SO ORDERED.

[3] This amount is intended to cover all legal expenses incurred in this matter. This award encompasses all charges by the attorney against a client, "advanced costs" as well as fees for legal services rendered. Furthermore, § 15(e)(3) prevents an attorney from charging or collecting fees (including costs) that would be in addition to the amount awarded herein. See generally Beck v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 924 F.2d 1029 (Fed. Cir.1991).

[4] Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), entry of judgment can be expedited by the parties' joint filing of notice renouncing the right to seek review.
